

Howdy Folks,

We will be gathering at The Cobblestone Hotel and Suites in Victor, ID. Plan on arriving Monday, March 9 and departing Friday, March 13.

Click on the link and all the reservation information you need is there. Please do not call the hotel directly as the front desk people are not equipped to handle reservation questions. If something comes up that is not addressed at the website, shoot Paul or Joe an email and they will check it out.

More reunion information to follow when we get it figured out.
